PRESS RELEASE

Seguin Holds Historic Cemetery Tours in November

SEGUIN - The Affiliation for the Preservation of Shakespeare and Federated Club Rooms and the City of Seguin will co-sponsor a Cemetery Tour at Riverside Cemetery on Nov. 4, 2012, located at 201 E. Klein St. on S. River St. in Seguin. The tour, "Our Ancestors Speak," includes eight re-enactments of notable citizens from Seguin's past ranging from one of the first founders of Seguin, Ezekiel Smith, to the founder of the Federated Women's Clubs, Nettie Hollamon Nolte.

"We want to introduce some of the interesting early residents of Seguin and talk about how they lived. We also want our Club Rooms and members of the clubs to be more visible and active in the community," stated Affiliation President Sudy Bruns. She emphasized that she is most grateful for the city's co-operation. "I'm not at all sure we would be able to do this without their help," she said.

Groups that meet at The Federated Club Rooms are the Seguin Shakespeare Club, Delphian Study Club, Seguin Study Club, and Tejas Study Club. Located at 432 N. River St., there will be a display of photos and information about featured past citizens, as well as refreshments, from 1:00 p.m. until 5:00 p.m. on the day of the tour. Everyone is invited to come by for a visit either before or after one of the tours.

The first tour will commence at 1:30 p.m., with another to follow at 3:30 p.m. Attendees are asked to arrive at the cemetery fifteen minutes before their tour starts so they can be placed into groups, one group to start at each of the eight grave sites. Tickets for the tour are $10.00 and can be purchased at local businesses such as Gift & Gourmet, Cascades, Seguin Area Chamber of Commerce, and Hispanic Chamber of Commerce.
